

INVEST IN TOMORROW. FINANCE TODAY.

Better opportunities. Higher pay. Faster advancement.

They're all possible with the help of training and certifications. In fact, investing in your future through additional training is the smartest move you could make.

But what about the cost? Now, paying for your training has never been more convenient, thanks to KnowledgeNet's financing options for personal purchases of $1,000 or more. Even better, there's no penalty for early payoff.

It's easy to apply. The application process takes less than five minutes with immediate approval for those who qualify.

Here's an overview:

- Two- to five-year financing available
- Applicable only to individual purchases with a personal account in NetSuite
- 5% application finance fee
- 5% non-refundable deposit required on the quoted amount
- Balance of sale is due within 15 days of receiving funding approval
- Full approval and funding takes an average of two to seven days.
- Funds are sent directly to the consumer
- First payment is due to lender 30 days after funding has been processed
